Heavy frost in Blakely on Tuesday morning:—Mr. Hezekiah Toole, an old citizen of the 26th Alstrict in Early county, died at his residence on Sunday evening last.—The cornet band of Blakeley have been to Fort Gaines on a blow. Subscriptions are now being taken to purchase instruments for a band at the latter place—On Friday last Wardlaw, the little son of Dr. G. R. Ewell, of Blakely, fell from a wagon loaded with cotton, and one of the bales was partly thrown on him. His left thigh was broker, and he was badly bruised.—Mrs. Elizabeth Sheffield died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cloe Lane, in Early county on the 28th instant. She was aged ninety-four years, ten months and thirteen days.—Early County News.

A young man who boards at one of those hash bouses for which Savannah is so justly famous, remarked in conversation at the supper table the other marked in convergation at the supper table the other night, that, in his opinion, bread baked to the consistency of a brick-b.t was not a success, and that the chicken might have been spared through respect for its years. The landlady tought a cowhide the next day, and interviewed this thoughtless young gentleman in the back parlor. He is now in bed, and his man in the back parlor. He is now in bed, and his meals are sent him from a restaurant. CONTERS, right to regulate railways within their bor-Wetherell, of Pennsylvania, favored the Congressional regulation of railways.

Able, of St. Louis, opposed Congressional control of railways or gressions: Control of railways or anything looking to the centralization of powers of the government and, favored Holden's amendment. Burwell, of New Orleans, took the same grounds. Messrs. Linsey and Wooley, of Cincinnati, Allen, of Philadelphis, and Crockett, of Boston, favored the amendment report. Wright, of Chicago, offered transportation to the general government and transportation to the general government and legislatures to be governed by the same gen-eral laws governing other industries, and that it should not be the policy of the general government to assume the business of the people either in transportation by rail or water, and in the construction o such routes, and recommending the Legisla-ture to protect the people against wrongs inflicted by common carriers. Hawley fa-vored the report and Bomberg opposed it. The debate having involved, to some extent, the question of States rights, the report was amended so as to ask Congress to calcise such power as the constitution authorizes for the regulation of the United States The vote on the first proposition was yeas

PAYMENT OF THE COUPONS FOR NOVEMBER.

NEW YORK, October 27.-Reports having NEW YORK, October 27.—Reports having become current that the coupons of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, falling due November the 1st, will not be paid. A reporter visited the President, who informed him that it was true the treasury was not as full as they would like to have it, but it was not owing to the fault of the Directors. These gentlemen had already paid in more money than they had promised, and at the present time it was difficult to obtain a great deal.

The President hoped that the payment of coupons would be satisfactorily arranged. A proposition to bond holders and other credcoupons would be satisfactorily arranged. A proposition to bond holders and other creditors to the effect that the floating debt and several of the future coupons should be funded into an income bond is now under

The answer was very decidedly in favor of consolidation, and various illustrations of its beneficial effects were stated. Gen. Mahone was credited with large reductions of rates as the result of the consolidation of the lines under his management. It was also stated that when the Pennsylvania railroad was operated as a broken line, owned by different parties between Philadelphia and Pittsburg, the number of tons carried per annum in both directions was less than 150,000 tons, and the cost of transportation exceeded two cents per ton per mile. This is a careful and deliberate accour from the pen of Gen. Joseph E. Johnston, of the Confederate army, of the events which preceded his removal from the command of the Southern forces operating against Gen. Sherman in Tennessee and Northern Georgia. Military men have long been aware of the decisive effect of that removal in favor of General Sherman and of the Union cause, It was the personal act of Jefferson Davis esolved upon and carried out by him in de-lance of the counsel and in contempt of the emonstrances of the ablest soldiers of the athern army; and as General Johnston can have no motive now for withholding the whole truth in regard to the matter, the story he has to tell will have a real value for the political as well for the military history o the great American conflict.

the Impeachment and Acquittal of Andrew Johnson-Alleges that Money was Used in Bribing

Senators.

The presence of Andrew Johnson in Wash ington recalls to mind the memorable impeachment trial, in which he was defendant, toward the close of his term of office as President of the United States. The late Cornelius Wendell, who was familiar with the incidents of that trial and an actor in some of the most important of them,

The idea of saving Mr. John almost wholly relinquished by his friends his conviction seemed a foregone conclusion and was almost universally spoken of a certain when one Sunday while Mr Wen. Brown's hotel-since changed to the Metro politan—he was accosted by an acquaintance who asked: "Wendell, do you wan't to be a hundred thousand dollars that Johnson wil be convicted? because if you do, I will take

Wendell said he at once comprehended what the proposition meant, and after a little further conversation requested a little time which to make up his mind, and appointed a late hour in the seme day for another meeting with the party who had made it.
"I flew around," continued Mr. Wendell,

"and after seeing several persons, found that I could raise $60,000; so when this man came back again I said to him, I will bet you "I don't want to bet $60,000," was the instantaneous reply, "I offered to bet you $100,000; if you do not wish to take that, we will let the matter drop. I will bet that or nothing; no smaller sum Wendell now perceived that the man was win a hundred thousand dollars. He request-ed further time, which was accorded, with the understanding, however, that at the next interview the money was to be put up or the negotiation was to be at an end.

Mr. Wendell knew where and to whom to mir, we need a new water and a purpose; no go to raise money for such a purpose; no man in the country knew better; and although such a sudden demand for so large a sum taxed his energies severely, he su getting the amount together within the time limited. The terms of the bet were fully complied with and the money was put up.

President Johnson, as we all knew to be a historical fact, was acquitted; but very few persons in the country have hitherto stood how it was dor Mr. Wendell said that some of the money went to quarters which would have been among the last to be suspected, whereas cer-tain Senators against whom suspicion was most rife never touched a dollar of the money.

Mr. Wendell also said that they had several nore votes secured to be given in favor acquittal in case they should be required to accomplish that result; but if not needed to acquit, then to be cast for conviction.

One of the most curious things about the whole transaction was the manner in which the money was paid over after the acquitta had taken place. It was not handed directly over from one of the parties to the other, but was lost by one to the other in play at cards.

NEW YORK, October 24,-The Sun says NEW YORK, October 24.—The Sun says, some two months ago Horace F. Clark, President, Augustus Schell, Vice President, and James H. Banker, Treasurer, of the Lake Shore Company, formed a pool for operating in the steck of that corporation. The capital of the pool was stated to be from $9,000,000 to $15,000,000, and the pool was operated through George B. Grinnell & Co. With the approach of the panic railroad shares began to decline, and as this combination was heavily loaded with Lake Shore, they were put to their wits to reise money to keep their margins good and hold their stocks. Finally an imperative demand came from their brokers for more money.

They, as officers of the Lake Shore Compay, called upon themselves. They, as officers of the Lake Shore Compay, called upon themselves as officers of the Trust Company for bonds held by the latter company, $250,000 in amount, which were taken to Grinnell & Co., who were authorized to raise the needed money on them. Commodore Vanderbilt, succeeding Clark in the Presidency of the Lake Shore Road, by legal means prevented the Union Trust Company from making a transfer of those bonds, and insisted that the members of the pool should either replace the bonds or their equivalent. One of THE CONSTITUTION'S editors returned last night from Macon. He reports that the Fair will be hardly under full headwhich were transferred to Grinnell & Co. was in the regular way, and their transtactions in the matter were perfectly straight. For the Ohio valley, rising barometer and actions in the matter were perfectly straight. It is reported that a transfer of property from Mr. Banker to Vanderbilt, to secure the latter for advances made last week has been made.

The Secretary

latter for advances made last week has been made.

WASHINGTON, October 25—The Secretary of the Ireasury, relative to the contemplated issue of silver coin, to take the place of currency in making payments by the Department, says he does not know exactly how much will be paid out. He expects it will be convenient for him next week to issue about $200,000, in the regular course of business, but it will depend on circumstances. If gold should go up the silver would not be paid out, nor will it be sold again to banks for speculative purposes. It is not to be expected that the Treasury will begin on the last of November to pay out silver coin for every purpose, and thus exhaust immediately the entire amount held by the Government. One illustration of the manner of making such payments, was presented by the Secretary to-day, who said that if a person should present a check of $255 40, the chances were that he would receive $5 40 of the amount in silver. The determination of the department is to issue silver to whatever extent it can be made that Fisk & Flatch had affected a setat an early date.

GOLD MOVEMENTS AT THE SUB-TREASURY The Treasury operations for the week at the New York office, included the disbursements of $700,000 in gold for interest, and in the redemption of 5-20 bonds, and the receipt of $1,109,900 for customs in specie. The exports for the week were nearly hundred thousand, principally silver bars, and the imports over fifteen hundred thousand pounds. The general merchandize imports including dry goods, were $5,880,093; pro-duce exports $7,430,726.

Killed by a Snake Bite

On Sunday last about 12 o'clock, while Mr. Vallier, chief of the Quapaw Indians, living three miles south of Baxter, was going about his farm, he was bitten on the toe of cistance, and by the time he reached it the pain from the bite was so severe that he was unable to sit up, and threw himself across the bed.

The insect had crawled up his clothing, and soon after he lay down it gave him the sec-ond bite in the region of the small of the back. This, with the other bite, charged his system with the poison almost as quickly as if by electricity. Medical aid was immediately summoned, but before it reached him he was too near gone for it to do any good, and in the most intense agony he lin gered until about ten o'clock that night when death relieved his sufferings.—From the Hemphill & Co. : Dear Sins—We have received from you titles, properly signed, to one half interest in the Constitution Building, which, as Trustess, we shall deliver to the parties entitled to it under the plan of distribution advertised by you. The building is, including basement, five stories high, one of the handsomest and best built in the city, and we think, with lot, correctly valued at $15,000.

G. W. ADAIR.

OBSERVE.

PUBI IC DISTRIBUTION.—The presents will be distributed IN PUBLIC, in presence of Mayor Hammock, General Austeil, President Atlanta National Bank; Judge S. B. Hoyt, Cashier Georgia Railroad Bank; Judge C. H. Strong, Colonel G. W. Adair, President Georgia Western dailroad; Colonel J. R. Waliace and others.

Georgia Western dailroad; Colonel S. R. Wanset and others.

1. The distribution skall take place, and all the presents shall be drawn in public.

2. We allow only sizely (60) days from this date, October 16th, for the operation of this grand scheme, and therefore, all who would selze this sylendid oportunity must do so within 60 days.

3. By special request, any two daily subscribers can obtain two six month's receipts and one Card, or a $5 subscription will secure the paper for the first six months of 1814 and one half interest in any of the first in fourteen precents, should any one of them be drawn to the Card.

WEEKLY SUBSCRIBERS.

ual receipts will be sent and one card for $10 aubscription.

5. Send money direct by Post-Office Order, Registered Letter or Express,

5. We call special attention to this fact to avoid any disastifaction. Only 5,000 Cards will be issued. We shall FORTIVELY refuse to increase the number. which is less than the number of old subscribers. As all new subscribers are entitled to share in the distribution, it will be seen that it is necessary to remit at once, or the limited number of cards may be disposed of and the chance missed.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Through the darkest hours of Georgia's history THE OONSTITUTION stood fearlessly by you and your rights, against prescription, persecution and even heavy libel suits by ira's Radical Governora. In spite of such opposition THE CONSTITUTION has grown to a prosperity unsurpassed in the South. We now propee to show our appreciation of the people's support by a grand distribution of presents. Mart you, it is no lottery; you do not give one end more than your subceription and you do only what subscribers should always do -pay in advance. The percentage of loss thus saved by us, and in expense of collecting, enables us to return it to subscribers in presents, and realize profit beside. Now we appeal to prour gratitude and generosity, and if you hear that appeal, as you will, we shall exect a building c-pable of accommodating our increased businers, and which shall stand as a memonial programment. appeal, as you will, we shall ered a building or pable of accommodating our increased basiness, and which shall stand as a MEMORIAL MONUMENT to the mobile liberality of the subscribers of THE A'LANTA CONSITUTION—THERE Christmas Present. Who cannot pay the small sum of one year's subscription in advance? Surely every subscriber will do so; and some will receive in return the grand presents of $7.500.

TIME,

Memphs."—Naskville paper.

The Mark Twain is building himself a house at Hartford, Ct., which is going to be a very peculiar affair. A correspondent of the Springfield Union has this to say about it: The style is indescribable, being a sort of cross between a Mexican adobe hut and as Swiss course, built of brick, to cost about $40,000, and it just the kind of house to cause a stranger to stop and inquire, "Who lives in that queer looking house?" Although the avenue runs east and west, the house instead of facing the street, faces east. On the north end is a small building, near the street; which contains the kitchen and servants rooms, separate from the main building, while immediately joining is a large dining room, having but little light, so that when used it will be necessary to light the gas. The parlor is wherethe kitchen would be located in any other house, while Mark's own room, where most of his time will be spent, is at the top of the house; and, in order to off set the want of light in the diving room, this room is almost entirely of gh ss.

Dr. Tutt's Pills are composed of many i Dr. Till's Pills are composed of many ingredients. Prominent smong them are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united as to act together; the one, through its admixture with other substances, purifying and purging; while the other is atrengthening the system. Thus these Pills are at the same time a tonic and a cathartic, a desideratum long sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words, they do the work of two medicines and do it much better than any two we know of, for they remove nothing from the system but impurities, so that while they purge they also strengthen and hence they cause no debility and are followed by no reaction.
